tive of the South. He was born in Pittsburgh in 1826 of a Scotch-Irish family which helped to make Pennsylvania history. Stephen was a creamer and unusually shy. He left Canonsburg College at the age of twenty to work in his brother's office in Cincinnati. Here his first songs were published and won quick popularity. They attracted the attention of one of the foremost New York music publishing houses, which published all of his later songs.

The rest of his life is a history of wanderings and disillusion. It was one of these tragedies that resulted both from environment and from character. He had remarkable musical ability but little musical training. It never occurred to him or to anyone else that he might study music seriously and take it up as a career. He drifted into song writing because he naturally expressed himself in melody.

The genesis of the Foster celebration in Pennsylvania is the following. Community Service, which had prepared a special "Stephen C. Foster Program" as a tribute to the composer's memory, suggested to Dr. Hollis Dana, State Director of Music in Pennsylvania, that January 12 be celebrated throughout the state as Foster Day. The Department of Public Instruction thereupon transmitted the suggestion to public schools, colleges and other institutions throughout Pennsylvania. The response was widespread. Numerous public schools are putting on the special Foster program. The Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh which is Foster's birthplace, is featuring an exhibit including Foster's piano and a famous portrait of the composer. The Civic Club of Allegheny County is sponsoring a Foster program. Temple University in Philadelphia is another of the celebrants. Rapid has been the spread of the idea in other states. For example, of the Community Service organizations in various cities are making the Foster memorial their special musical event for the month of January. Wilmington, Delaware, is one of the cities that is giving the Foster Program, which consists of the narrating by a speaker of interesting facts in Foster's life, the singing of some of his songs by the audience and choral groups, and the illustrating of certain of the songs through costume and tableaux.

brothers of the first named, who were accessories after the fact of one of the violations for which fines were imposed.

On November 30th last Willis Bartlebaugh shot and killed a buck deer near Patchinville, and on the first day of the deer season, the day following, his brothers, Ray, Harvey and Jess helped him carry it in and dispose of it.

On the last day of the deer season, Floyd Bartlebaugh wounded a doe and it was for these violations the fines were imposed.

The game wardens say they had been after this crowd for some time and will recommend to the State Game Commission that their right to hunt in Pennsylvania be taken away for a good long time or until they are satisfied the Bartlebaughs can obey the law like other people.

back out on the porch to empty the ashes from the same when he heard two or three shots fired in quick succession. For a moment he believed the shots had been fired somewhere in the neighborhood, but the conviction then seized him that they had been fired in the house.

He ran upstairs to the second floor, but in passing through the hall downstairs noticed that a revolver was missing from a case of firearms which is kept there. He found no one on the second floor and continued on to the attic where Doris had a playroom. While ascending the stairs, his daughter, Mrs. Bunting, appeared on the staircase and started to descend. He cried to her, "Cressie, what is the matter?" and she replied, "Go in and see Doris." Mrs. Bunting then turned and reascended the stairs, falling at the top of the staircase and almost immediately expired.

Mr. Jackson entered the playroom and found the body of the little girl lying on the floor. She was dead, having apparently passed away without a struggle, nor was there any marks or blood visible upon her or her mother to casual inspection.

"Madame Sarah's last performance was her actual farewell," although she did not know it," said Guilty to his friends today. "She does not know it yet. Her last dress rehearsal was the greatest triumph of her life. Never have I seen such motion. In the play she held a letter in her hand and wept. It was so realistic that, after the rehearsal the letter was found to be sodden with her tears."

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

about the woods. He said he thought they were looking for a place to hang him. He told me they then said they were satisfied with what he had said. He then said they unmasked.

"They asked him if he had recognized any of them. He said he told them he recognized Captain Skipworth, but none of the others."

Neelis testified Richards, on the day following the first kidnapping, told him he had recognized five or six of the kidnappers.

"Who were they?" he was asked again.

"Captain Skipworth, Jim Tisdale, of Monroe; A. B. Campbell, of Jones, and Dr. McKoin," Neelis answered.

"I was on my way to Mer Rouge in a truck being driven by a negro," Neelis said, referring to the occurrence on August 17 or 18, "when I was held up on the road by seven hooded men."

"They had shotguns and pistols. I was ordered out of the truck. They told us to go on ahead and not to say anything about this. I went on, but near Mer Rouge I was held up by two unmasked men."

"They were Jeff Burnett and a Mr. Rogers. They told me to turn around and go back to where we were first held up."

"After reaching there we stayed about thirty minutes. We were joined by a masked man. He said, 'Do you know me?' I said, 'No.'"

"I was supposed to walk back to Bastrop, but I hopped a car going toward Bastrop and rode into town."

"When Burnett and Rogers held me up, I talked with them long enough to know what they were after. It was Richards."

"I asked Burnett who they were after. He said he couldn't tell me, but I said if he wanted Richards he need not resort to any of these measures."

"I beat the masked men into Bastrop. The first thing I did was to get Richards. I told him the Ku Klux was after him and for us to go over and sit in the sheriff's office, where he might have protection. He had his little girl with him and he said for us to wait until his wife came back."

"Now, back where I was held up I saw Burnett and Rogers put on their masks. About that time Fred Higgenbotham came up. He was unmasked. He consulted with Burnett and Rogers and they said I could go. "I was good and mad, and about that time the auto with the masked men came up to the garage. I went up to them and told them to leave Richards alone."

"About that time Rogers, who had a shot gun, pointed it at me and told me to step aside. They left with Richards, and later Mrs. Richards came up and I told her about it."

Addie May Hamilton testified she was forced to leave her home near Mer Rouge and was deported from the state by the Ku Klux. She named Dr. B. M. McKoin and "Pir" Kirkpatrick as two of the party of men who came to her mother's home one night, took her away and put her aboard a train for Little Rock, Ark., the home of her sister. The witness gave her age as seventeen.

versity of Pennsylvania. His work there for some years has been in two subjects—public finance, and political parties, and election system.

During the administration of Mayor Blankenburg he made a study of marketing for the mayor. He was chairman of the Tri-State Milk Association appointed by the Governors of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, from 1916 to 1918. He was Milk Price Administrator for the United States Food Administration for the Eastern States and for Howard Heinz in Pennsylvania during the war period. He has been Milk Price Arbitrator of Pennsylvania since 1919.

He was a member of President Harding's unemployment conference, and also of his agricultural conference. He is now a member of an advisory committee on European affairs in the National Department of Commerce.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The lot of a rural Justice of the Peace is not always a bed of roses and oftentimes the village Solomon is called upon to settle difficulties amicably among neighbors that would not only induce old Job to sit right down hard on his many boils, but would cause old fabled Solomon, the original, to tear his hair and cry "it is too much."

We are moved to make the above observation from our knowledge of a situation which exists up at Houtzdale. The Justice who is at his judicial wit's end for a solution of an almost interminable difficulty now confronting him is "Judge" John Scollins.

It is a difficulty in a manner peculiar to the day, or its times and its idioms, and has to do with the fact that Houtzdale is no longer the home of "white mule." Almost every other community in Clearfield county would be tickled to death that any "white mule" was gone from their midst never to return. But Houtzdale always did have more or less peculiar people with an ethical code all their own, and our tale hinges on that fact.

But to get down to our story and its whys and wherefores. The Hon. Jackie Neen, erstwhile champion of the rights of the people as a State Senatorial candidate, finding that before a man could get anywhere in Clearfield county politics he would first have to qualify as a successful coal baron or operator, lately embarked in the coal business. "I motive power at the operation was a white mule of uncertain temper and temperament. The mule wore his shoes out hauling dollars into Jack."

LUTHERAN CLASS NO. 3 HAS FINE MEETING

Class No. 3 of St. John's Lutheran Sunday school held their regular business and social meeting last night in the Sunday school room. They had as their guests the men's class, No. 2, taught by Mr. Wm. McBride, and their wives, the superintendent and wife, the pastor and wife and those whose husbands could not come were privileged to bring a friend. This very active class is taught by Prof. E. O. Tobias who was unable to be present. At the business session, a report of the work done by the class for the year was made and it was a very creditable report. Nearly three hundred dollars was received by the class during the year over and above their regular Sunday offering, which is always a liberal one. The retiring president, Mrs. Frank Smith, was presented with a beautiful necklace for her faithfulness. During her three years as president she did not miss one meeting of the class. Mrs. W. W. Shirey, the efficient secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Cathcart were a tie for second honor, having missed but one or two meetings. Surely these are to be commended for their faithfulness. It is just such loyalty that assures success in any undertaking.

Splendid readings were given by Misses Norris, Fleck and Power. These young ladies have a bright future ahead of them if they have an opportunity to develop their talent. At the close of the program all were invited to the festal hall where refreshments were served by the young ladies of Mrs. Shull's class. Mr. Paul Dietzel acted as toastmaster and spoke on the work of the school. The pastor spoke on personal work. Dr. Frantz spoke of the changes made during the past five years and the harmony now existing. Mr. Carl Anderson emphasized the importance of knowing what you believe. Mr. McBride spoke on co-operation. At a late hour the end of a delightful affair came to a close, and all went off their way home with feeling it was good to have been there. Here's wishing Class No. 3 even greater success during 1923.

FIRST OF EUCHE PARTIES A SUCCESS

The first of the series of progressive card parties planned by the Second Ward Hose Company was held in their newly decorated and equipped rooms on Witmer street, on Thursday evening. The tables were fairly well filled and the playing accompanied by the refreshments made a most enjoyable evening. The Second Ward boys have their social room so tastefully arranged that it is one of the most comfortable rooms for private gatherings in the entire community. The next in the series of card parties to be held will be on Tuesday, January 30th.

Mr. Pinchot, by his action in resisting Mr. Finegan to remain at the helm of the good ship Education
last June, gives evidence of a high appreciation of the importance of the department of the State Government and a greater interest in our public schools than shown by the majority of the Finegan administration
during the last campaign.
Mr. Pinchot's statement leaves no doubt, however, and it is to be hoped that the new governor will take time to inquire searchingly into the Department of Education for the favorable result will be the retention of Dr. Finegan as a part and parcel of the Pinchot regime.

Judging by her conduct in 1871 and by the ferocity which she inflicted upon Belgium and France at the very outbreak of the World War
there is much reason to believe that Germany has been the victor she could have collected the whole of the immense indemnity demanded and would have been in possession of the allied lands months ago. She could have exhibited neither patience nor mercy. Why, then, should the final determination of France to the possession of the Ruhr region
create such uproar in various quarters. To the thinking of many her government has exhibited marvelous patience during the passing years.

Do you know that there's a good deal of substance in nonsense? He who induces his fellow beings to do a good work. It has been said that a genuinely hearty laugh is often worth more than a dose of medicine and we believe it.
The best physicians understand the philosophy of laughter and are not above employing it as an auxiliary to the pills and potions they dispense.
We hear one of that sort in a sick room the other day preaching the doctrine of cheerfulness to really good effect. So long as one has the ability to laugh one's case is far from hopeless. Nonsense is more often than not the equivalent of good sense.

It is not to be wondered at that so
able a man as Fred Rasmussen, whom Governor Sprout brought east
to take charge of the Department of Agriculture, is able to step out of the Sprout cabinet into a desirable,
and probably better paying position.
We are sorry to see Secretary Rasmussen leave the services of the Commonwealth but glad to know that he is to keep his residence at Harrisburg and still be in touch with agricultural affairs through his connections with the land bank.

While there are plenty of good
men who could be named to the position it would have been much better
if Mr. Rasmussen could have continued his work with the state.
And while Mr. Pinchot is looking around for a good man for Mr. Rasmussen's place it occurs to us that Dean Watts of State College is the peg that would fit the hole.

More than one of us have been forced to shudder when reading the details of the Mer Rouge outrages committed in the name of "one hundred per cent Americanism."

It may seem unbelievable to some
that such a thing could be in this civilized country.

But, we did not think Herrin was possible either.

What if you knew that right here in Clearfield, two little boys, aged ten and thirteen years of age, had been abandoned by their father and left to live on dry bread for several days.

Tomorrow's Progress will tell you about this.

Jackie Coogan, the young freckled faced lad of the silver screen, is to get a half million dollars for outlining his signature on the dotted line. His father is his manager and no doubt dad and mother will get a new flivver
in the Spring.

You can hardly blame the trio for getting the money when the getting is good. Jackie is a born actor and millions love to see him perform his antics.

But a half million dollars for a little Jackie is a dangerous toy. We wonder just what Jackie will be doing when the country needs him.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Pennsylvania farm wives made 34,442-477 lbs of butter last year, which was valued at $16,496,400, according to statistics of the state department of agriculture. In 1921 butter made on the farms totalled $6,011,509 pounds and was valued at $15,831-458.

York county was the champion
manufacturer of home-made butter.
Last year, with Lancaster second and Washington third. Butter made on the farms of the state last year sold for an average of 48 cents a pound.

In Clearfield county 599,541
pounds of butter were made during the year at an average price of 52c
and for a total value of $311,768.06;
Jefferson county, 805,352 pounds at an average price of 45 cents and a total value of $362,408.85; Indiana county, 1,082,011 pounds at an average price of 46 cents and a total value of 497,725.06.

With but three exceptions, the average price of butter in the county during the year was as high as any county in the state.

England Fears

der or to sanction laying the keels. The Lloyd-George government proceeded with the scrapping of all the ships specified in the Washington agreement. By so doing, it is pointed out, the existing reserve of the British navy against a possible repudiation of the naval agreement by other signatory powers has been destroyed.

This "act of good faith" has pushed England perilously near the danger point, the Morning Post declares. Should a repudiation of the Washington agreement occur at this time, the resultant strength of the three great naval powers would be, United States 41 capital ships; Japan 23 capital ships; England 23 capital ships.

The United States has not, according to the Post, taken steps to scrap designated vessels pending the final endorsement of the naval agreement by the government concerned.

Lord Lee, of Fareham is quoted as saying that the only reason the Admiralty agreed to the scrapping of nineteen capital ships by the late government was that the other powers should fulfill their obligations and that two new ships allowed under the agreement should be made immediately available.

Either of these promises to the Admiralty's conclusion to sanction the scrapping program may prove unsound. But, even though the treaty is poorly carried out, England will be far behind unless some means of carrying out the construction of the two new ships is found.

After Ratification

After ratification all around, the United States would possess 20 capital ships built and building. Five of these would be post-Jutland. Japan would have 10 capital ships, two of them post-Jutland. England would have an imposing total of 22 capital ships. But, the Post points out, only one of these, the Hood, would embody the improvement derived from the experience of the war. The foregoing status position to the United States in ultra-modern ships.

If the treaty is ratified all around and if the money for the construction of the two new ships is forthcoming, England and the United States will be on a parity with 25 capital ships each. Under the agreement England must scrap four capital vessels upon commissioning the pair of new ones. Japan's quota will be ten ships. If there is a hitch anywhere the balance is destroyed and England for the first time will find herself second in naval power. Meantime alarming rumors come from France that the naval government may not be okayed.

Bill Sheeder, who visited Pottsville Rotary Club the past week, told of his visit and presented many Pottsville ideas for the education of the club members.

George Zerfoss reported on the activities of the Boys' Work Committee and told of the survey in the school which found more than 250 pupils under weight. The Club is back of the movement to supply milk for these underweights and the President announced that $400 had already been provided for this work and the Rotary Club would provide a similar sum.

In connection with this effort, President Bigler called attention to the goitre-prevention movement of the School Board and referred to the lecture on the subject given before the club last year by Dr. Hayes Woodridge, in which the doctor referred to the fact that we are located in a goitre belt here in Clearfield county. President Bigler said the truth of that statement was found in the experience of the School Board, which queried the parents of the school children before the start of the present school term and received permission to use the goitre preventive medicine on 662 pupils. Of this number, upon examination, no less than 200 were found to already have implicit goitres.

Matt Savage, Reg. of Ocean City, N. J., who was present as the guest of President Bigler, was then introduced and favored the Rotarians with a pleasing little ten minute talk in which he contrasted old-time conditions in Clearfield with the present and spoke feelingly of the great change in the old town during the year and one-half he had been away. Mr. Savage complimented the Rotary Club on the good work they had already done and wished them enlarged opportunity and accomplishment for the future.

What the Business Man May Expect In 1923

There is scarcely an individual doing business in the United States, whether upon a large or small scale, who will not receive information that will be of unusual value to him if he reads the leading news-feature in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week. It comprises surveys and predictions of business for the coming twelve months made by the foremost financiers and economists in the country—the heads of great banking institutions; such men as John Moody, B. C. Forbes, and Roger W. Babson, and the financial editors of the most important American newspapers. The article points out the clouds on the business sky which no cautious business man can afford to ignore; shows the condition of the farmer; the trend of wages; what makes for increased prosperity. The article is illustrated by charts and graphs.

Other striking news-features in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, January 13th, are:

Go to the Theater and Laugh at "Fun From the Press"

When the dull cares of business are closed behind office doors, you need some laughter. When the dishes are done and the grind of household duties is over, you ought to laugh. It will make to-morrow brighter, happier. So pack up your troubles and take a little journey to The Land of Make Believe. In the mellow glow of subdued lights let the craftsmen of the cinema world guide your sagging spirits back to normalcy. Rest—amid the enchantment of princes and potentates and palaces as they pass in review for you. Then let the cleverest jesters of newspaperdom tickle your funny bone. They will make merriment of the day's dreariest news. They will relate the funniest anecdotes, the most humorous yarns, and the wittiest epigrams. And all presented in the one rollicking reel, "Fun From the Press." Watch for it in your favorite motion picture theater—a new one every week. "Fun From the Press." Produced by The Literary Digest. KELLOGG'S BRAN

gives permanent relief

because it is ALL BRAN!

With the most dangerous diseases close on the trail of sufferers from constipation, there's no time to waste on foods with a low bran content! The one answer to constipation is BRAN that is ALL BRAN! That's why you should eat Kellogg's—and eat it regularly; at least two tablespoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases! KELLOGG'S BRAN IS SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED TO RELIEVE SUFFERING HUMANITY AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Don't delay a minute! Get started on Kellogg's Bran to-day and your health will steadily improve and bowel conditions return to normal, no matter how long you have suffered with constipation, mild or chronic.

Remember that Kellogg's Bran is not an artificial laxative, but nature's own bulk food that acts as sweeper, cleanser and purifier. Its work for health is wonderful! Besides, bran contains the most valuable mineral salts and other life-sustaining elements—it is a blood maker and bone and tissue builder!

Kellogg's Bran, being cooked and kumbed, is delicious eaten as a cereal, or sprinkled on hot or cold cereals. Another happy way to serve Kellogg's Bran is to cook it with your favorite hot cereal. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person, cooking the cereal as usual.

You can make the most delightful muffins, raisin bread, pancakes, macarons, etc., with Kellogg's Bran—and it's fine in gravies, soups and purées.

The big thing is to get started on Kellogg's Bran quickly—for the sake of the health of your entire family—AND SERVE IT REGULARLY! First-class hotels and clubs serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant!

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

Annual meeting of the stockholders of the Curwensville National Bank held yesterday afternoon business hours.

Blake and wife, who have been in New York for several weeks past, are expected to return tomorrow or next day.

Young, who is now in his 80s, is in fast failing health. One of his daughters, Mrs. Mrs. South Filbert street, is blind and his mind is wandering backward to the days that occurred in his youth and manhood days.

Management of the B. R. & Co. has started a movement to improve lines on the B. R. from Bridgeport to the brick yard. Two new steel bridges are to be erected, one at a cost of $8,000 and another at $4,000. In length siding will be gradually laid to parallel the highway. These improvements were made necessary in order to improve the materials which will be shipped from that neighborhood. The B. & W. branch to the main line at Bridgeport. An eight steel bridge has been built, or will be just as soon as material arrives to be placed at Anderson Creek at Bridgeport.

Due to a car embargo on the cars at present, the Crescent Motor company is somewhat cramped in truck shipping. If cars are placed and loaded in the space of 10 hours, the cars will be taken out. This short limit hampers time sufficient to load as cars as is desired.

Mr. Balone, one of the hustling men of this burg, has invested in a good sized motor and is now prepared to do all of draying and hauling.

subject being "Habit."

At a recent meeting the Teachers' Association elected officers for the year. Prof. Paul Zetler was chosen as president; Prof. Geo. E. Croyle, vice president; Miss Laura Walters, Secretary and Miss Ollie Moore, treasurer. This is strictly an organization for Curwensville teachers who meet for mutual consultation in regard to their educational work.

WINBURNE

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE OF WINBURNE DISTRICT

The Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Committee of Winburne, Lanse and Forest, extend hearty appreciation and thanks to the merchants, the schools and all persons who assisted in making the recent sale a success. The total proceeds this year, amount to $63.65.

To the scholars of the grade schools of Winburne, Lanse and Kroxrun and Viaduct is due great credit for the fine spirit they showed in canvassing and in making such splendid sales. Twenty per cent of this money will be handed over to the state fund, and eighty per cent of it will remain here to be used for health welfare purposes.

Mrs. R. H. SOMMERVILLE,
Mrs. BENJAMIN THOMAS
Mrs. W. P. THORP
Mrs. RICHARD GEORGE,
Mrs. LEWIS CHASE,

The Evangelistic meetings being held each evening this week in the Methodist church are interesting and inspiring. Considering the stormy weather, the attendance has been good. The meetings will be continued next week in the Presbyterian church, when Dr. John Scott of Phillipsburg will preach.

Winburne was the scene of a big conflagration Thursday morning about 2 a. m. when a large frame building owned by Chas. Johnson and used by William Adams as a pool room was almost completely burned down. Owing to the close proximity to dwelling houses, much more damage might have been done. The home of Harry Bowersox was badly charred and its windows cracked but luckily no wind was blowing and the fire company prevented the flames spreading farther. The loss on the building will be $300, contents $1500 and the damage to the Bowersox property will amount to about $300.

Tuesday afternoon the fire company was called to the John Schultz home, but a burning flue proved to be the extent of the fire there.

Mrs. Lewis Fleck, who underwent an operation in the Cottage State Hospital, is getting along satisfactorily.

Mrs. Frank Butler has returned from Lewisburg where she spent two weeks at the home of her brother, Rev. William Taylor.

Her many friends are pleased to know that Mrs. Thomas Simcox has made a good recovery from her illness and operation and is steadily regaining her strength.

Rev. L. N. Leith, of Watsonstown, was a welcome visitor here for a couple of days last week. His errand was a sad one, having come to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Jackson Hoover of Kyrletown. While here he was the guest of James Hunter and greeted many of his old friends.

The Winburne Free Library has now moved into its new quarters, a pleasant and attractive room on Main street, near the drug store. It is expected that it will be a very useful asset to the community. It will be open to the public Tuesday 7 and 8 p. m. and Saturday 2 to 3 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m. until further notice.

GIRL SCOUT NOTICE

The patrol leaders representing the Scout house committee who met last Saturday morning to receive each troop's appointment, are asked to meet again tomorrow and bring the goods. The house will be open at 8:30 and the patrol leaders are asked to appear with troop helpers and the implements of warfare, mop, soap, scrub cloths and the like and finish the job. The matter has hung fire too long and it would be a great pleasure all around to have everything possible finished off. Every one tell every one else.

The captains will meet with Mrs. Lawhead at the Scout building Monday evening as was previously decided. All will have alphabets memorized and signal flags as per directions, ready for instruction at once.

KNOCKED OUT BY FALL

President James Mitchell of the Clearfield National Bank, while coming down from his Walnut street home to the bank after dinner yesterday, slipped and fell on the ice in front of Dr. Woodside's residence on Second street. Mr. Mitchell struck the back of his head in his fall, cutting a gash in it and knocking him out for a time. He was taken to Dr. Woodside's office and his injuries attended to, after which he was able to return to his home, where he is still confined but is improving finely and will be about again as usual in a day or so.

COUNTY AGENTS MEET AT STATE COLLEGE

State College, Pa., Jan. 12—The annual conference for agricultural extension workers of the Pennsylvania State College started here this morning with the arrival of seventy-five county agents and assistant county agents. About forty extension specialists who work out from the college are also here for the meetings which will continue until next Friday evening.

The county agents, who come under the supervision of the college, will bring up the problems that confront them in their daily work of visiting and advising farmers in sixty-three of the 67 Pennsylvania counties. This is the time for making up programs for extension work in the various counties and the farm agents will engage the specialists whom they wish to conduct feature demonstrations this year in their respective counties.

A feature of the conference will be a series of six lectures on agricultural economics by Dr. E. G. Nourse, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. State Secretary of Agriculture Fred Rasmussen, President John M. Thomas, Dean R. L. Watts, representatives of the State Bankers' Association and the State Chamber of Commerce, will also speak to the extension staff. There will be a big get-together with the faculty of the agricultural school on next Tuesday night. A number of urgent extension problems will be brought up at the conference for solution. At the close of the conference the extension staff and many of the agricultural faculty will go to Harrisburg for the annual State Fair Products Show.

A Nation's Tribute to Buick

There is an inspiring tribute to an industry in the universal recognition annually accorded the National Automobile Shows.

Thousands come to these exhibitions from every section of the continent and from foreign lands as well, and their advent is widely heralded the world over.

In the twenty-third National Automobile Show, just opening in New York, and later in Chicago, the nation is provided with a display of its chief means of personal transportation. This display is so complete and so magnificently set forth that all who come may easily carry away a perfect picture of the latest accomplishments in motor car building.

Year after year the national shows receive the homage of the entire country. Year after year they mark by their own increased magnitude and splendor, the increased growth of the automobile industry.

In occupying first place at both national shows for the fifth consecutive year, Buick continues the position in the industry awarded it by universal public opinion. D-18-24-25

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists call it "Joint Ease" because it's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only.

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and meat and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, painful joints as good as new. They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and when it is caused by rheumatism or anything else. Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, tick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever. Ask for a tube of "Joint Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds' rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

First class druggists everywhere dispense it daily for about 60 cents a tube.

Backache? Rheumatism?

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. There is no longer the slightest need of this, however, as the new prescription, "Anuric," is bound to give immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, and by the impoverished blood of its powerful way of the kidneys. It can be obtained at almost any drug store, simply asking for "Anuric" for kidney or backache. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant arising from bed at night.

Send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel Buffalo, N. Y., for a ten-cent trial pkg or ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Anuric (kidney and backache remedy). This is what one Pennsylvania man says:

Chester, Pa.,—"I was taken with rheumatism. I could not walk for ten days, and had to use a crutch and a stick for more than two months. After trying different remedies and getting no relief I bought two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets and before I had taken half a bottle I could walk without a stick. I continued to take them until I had taken nearly two bottles (dieting myself as directed) and I was then well."—W. M. Bell, 1115 Upland St.

NUTRITIOUS

But it is not enough that food be palatable; man is realizing today as never before the necessity for properly balanced rations. Protein is an indispensable element in the food of mankind, and Dried Beef meets all the requirements of an ideal protein food. Professor Atwater gives the protein contents of Dried Beef as thirty-two per cent and the total food material as sixty-seven per cent. A Bulletin issued by the United States Department of Agriculture gives the protein content of Roast Beef as twenty-two per cent, Beef Steak twenty-one per cent, Roast Lamb sixteen and one-half per cent, Roast Chicken twenty-one and one-half per cent, Pork Chops sixteen and one-half per cent. These figures show the relatively high food value of Dried Beef.

ALL IS QUIET IN RHUR COAL DISTRICT ALTHOUGH STINNES AND OTHER OWNERS OF COAL TREAT THE FRENCH COOLLY

American Troops Will Haul Down Stars and Stripes Next Fri. and Leave For U. S. A.

ESSEN VERY DULL

Coblenz, Jan. 12.—Next Friday has been set as the day when the Stars and Stripes come down from the Coblenz flag pole and the American army of occupation leaves to embark for Savannah.

The United States troops will entrain for Antwerp and will sail on the transport St. Michel January 21st.

Essen, Jan. 12.—The city of Essen was quiet today. During the night the French withdrew from the heart of the city and when citizens appeared about their duties they encountered only a few occasional blue-coated sentry pacing the down town streets.

The bulk of the invading forces have been withdrawn to the suburbs. The action of the tanks and armored cars was marked. German traffic police were in charge throughout the city.

Surprised at the action of way like demonstrations, the citizens of Essen, who had acted sullenly when the city was first seized, were apparently engrossed in an effort to master their resentment.

Stiff German smiles were mingled as occasional groups of French officers appeared.

The French commanded the Kaiserhof hotel, evicting both permanent and transient guests, who had made this their home. The engineer control commission and a group of French officers moved in.

Uneasiness is expressed regarding what may transpire tomorrow, which is pay day when the miners have been accustomed to come in from the coal fields and drink rather heavily. The government action in guaranteeing the miners' pay, however, is believed will avert any trouble.

Essen, Jan. 12.—Hugo Stinnes, Dr. Von Bohlen and other coal barons of the Ruhr today ignored the Franco-Belgian "invitation," in reality an order, to attend a meeting on coal distribution.

District President Gruetznar, who is not a member of the coal syndicate and who so hastily moved his headquarters from Essen when the French took possession, was the only prominent nationalist present.

The Allies notified the Ruhr mines administrators and workers they must obey orders of the army of occupation, not those of Berlin. General Foch attended the meeting. Nothing was said about the flight of the coal syndicate directors with the books, but Germany demanded everything be put in writing.

ENGLAND FEARS LOSS OF SUPREMACY ON SEAS OWING TO FAILURE TO RATIFY NAVAL PACT MADE AT WASHINGTON

By IYLE C. WILSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, Jan. 11. (United Press.)—For the first time in centuries England is minus the trump cards in the game of retaining supremacy of the sea.

Two new capital ships, planned as the most powerful afloat and scheduled to be begun this month may remain mere paper sketches in the Admiralty office.

Unless the signatory nations make haste to consummate the Washington disarmament treaty, England will find herself tied with Japan as a bad second in sea power, naval experts pointed out.

"Jackey Coogan," Film Star, Gets A Cool Half Million

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12.—Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford were unsuccessful today in their efforts to obtain the services of "Jackey" Coogan, eight year old millionaire film star. Metro Film Corporation bid Doug and Mary up a considerable margin.

Under the terms of the new offer Jackie will get $500,000 outright and a 60-40 share of the profits, and Jackie's father will produce the films and Metro will advance the money covering the cost of same.

It was declared that Doug and Mary were unable to see their way clear to meet this offer.

CRISSENGER NAMED RESERVE GOVERNOR TO SUCCEED HARDING

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Harding today nominated D. R. Crisenger, Comptroller of the Currency, to be governor of the Federal Reserve Board to succeed W. H. G. Harding.

At the same time the President nominated J. C. McNamara of New Mexico to the post of Comptroller of the Currency to succeed Crisenger.

KANE MOTHER KILLS LITTLE DAUGHTER, THEN SUICIDES

Kane, Jan. 12.—One of the most shocking occurrences in the history of this part of the country occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Jackson on Pine avenue, this city, when their daughter, Mrs. Cressie Bunting, of Erie, Pa., shot and killed her pretty little daughter, Doris, aged seven years, and then turned the weapon upon herself inflicting a wound from which she died within a few minutes. The weapon used was a .22-caliber revolver.

Mrs. Bunting was the wife of L. Ray Bunting, a chiropractor of Erie, Pa., and she did so much studying of the science of chiropractic that she was on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

While Mrs. Bunting was very nervous it is alleged that she had displayed no signs of insanity that were noticed by her parents, although yesterday her nervous condition became so pronounced that Mrs. Jackson determined to see a physician regarding her daughter's malady and she was upon that errand when the tragedy occurred.

Mr. Jackson had been absent from the house during the afternoon. He returned home about 4:30 o'clock and according to his story opened the front door and saw no one about. He said he was smoking a pipe and came (Continued On Page Two.)

COMMISSIONERS TAKEN TO JAIL BY SHERIFF LOWELL; MAKE INSPECTION BUT REFUSE TO GRANT INTERVIEW

The story told by Rev. Richard A. Hatch at a recent meeting of the Clearfield Rotary Club concerning conditions as he found them at the Clearfield county jail, and which story will result in an investigation of the jail and its condition by the February Grand Jury, before which body Rev. Hatch has been summoned to appear and testify as to just what he found, seems to be destined to have the effect of establishing just what, if anything, is the matter with the county bastille and should, and no doubt will, result in its being cleaned up once and for all.

Having learned of the contention that all is not as well as it might be at the jail through the medium of the court order providing for the proposed Grand Jury investigation, and no doubt with the idea of getting first hand information as to the exact state of affairs down there, County Commissioners Dale, Weimer and Farrell, with Chief Clerk Norris were "taken to jail" yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Lowell and looked the place over from the soup on the kitchen stove to the "nuts" waiting for it on the inside.

What the county officials saw and what they found out will be unknown to thousands, at least until after the Grand Jury investigation, because notwithstanding the fact that the Progress scribe visited the commissioners' office this morning and attempted to interview all three Commissioners on the subject, none would say a word, and there you are.

KEPHART SENDS HIS CHECK FOR $1,084 TO HARRISBURG

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 12.—Former State Treasurer Harman Kephart, under indictment for misdemeanors as a result of last summer's "Treasury Investigation" today made full financial settlement with the State.

His check for $1,093.99 which came into the Treasury today, was accepted with the expressed opinion of the Attorney General and Auditor General as full payment of everything Kephart owed the Commonwealth.

This payment, it was said will have no effect on the criminal prosecution now being pushed against the former State Treasurer.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 12.—Former State Treasurer Harman Kephart was today indicted on five new counts for misdemeanors in office by the Dauphin County Grand Jury.

The five indictments recounted today allege failure properly to report to the Auditor General the exact condition of the State's finances from January to May, 1922. These charges are similar to the indictments brought last summer except that they cover a later period of time.

"Divine Sarah," After A Lifetime Of Success, Is Said To Be Penniless

Paris, Jan. 9.—Despite the millions in money which an admiring world has paid tribute to her art, Madame Sarah Bernhardt, finds herself today in straightened financial circumstances. In fact, the "Divine Sarah,"—despite the enormous sums she has earned upon the stage, "is broke."

Despite her illness, Mme Bernhardt feels that she must return to her dramatic work at the earliest possible moment to pay off her debts many of which were incurred thru unfortunate investments by her son Maurice.

It is learned from an authoritative source that Madame Bernhardt is suffering from uremia. Her friends have declared since the beginning of her illness that she would never be able to return to the stage.

Sacha Guitry and other intimates are considering appeals to theatrical people throughout the world to give benefit performances in theatres in England and America, where Bernhardt has appeared, for the purpose of raising the $600,000 francs necessary to pay off the accounts. (Continued On Page Two.)

MAYOR DADE ADMITS HE PARTICIPATED IN ACTS OF KLAN

Bastrop, La., Jan. 12.—Robert Dade, Mayor of Mer Rouge, admitted today that he had participated in the acts of the hooded mob, which State Officials are probing in connection with the murder of Watt Daniel and Thomas Richards by a hooded "torture squad."

Dade, recalled to the stand today in the investigation of the murder, said he was in the hooded mob that accosted D. W. C. Andrews and Henry J. Le-lie a few days before Daniel and Richards were tortured to death.

He named Dr. McKoin and Captain Stith as being in the hunt of "black courts." Previously, they admitted he was a former Klansman. Before the session began today State Attorneys received from Stith, Exalted Cyclops of the Klar full details of every activity of the organization since it was founded here two years ago.

Upshaw's List Of Bootleggers Is Put Under Lock And Key

Washington, Jan. 12.—A list of bootleggers, alleged to be supplying Congressmen with diplomatic and other brands of liquor, is locked up in safe at prohibition headquarters today.

Following his call-up from Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, Representative Upshaw, Democrat of Georgia, today visited Assistant Commissioner Jones and placed his hands further data as to the widespread violation of the Volstead act among officials.

Upshaw today admitted that the evidence that he had submitted must be further substantiated.

Exploding Boiler In Chicago Apartment Is Fatal To 3; Blinds 1

Chicago, Jan. 12.—A mother and two babies are dead and another mother is probably blinded for life today as a result of a fire that broke out in an apartment.

A boiler burst in the apartment in which Mrs. E. A. Baumann lives. Mrs. Baumann grabbed her two-year old boy and dashed for the street. Fireman found her in the hallway. The baby was dead and Mrs. Baumann died later.

SAYS KLAN LEADER TOOK PART IN MANY HOODED ACTIVITIES

Bastrop, La., Jan. 11.—Jeff Burnett was named as one of two unmasked men who held up Harry J. Neelis, automobile man of Bastrop near Bastrop, August 17 or 18, by Neelis yesterday.

The alleged hold-up took place on the same day Richards is said to have been first questioned by a hooded band as to an alleged attack on Dr. B. M. McKoin, former mayor of Mer Rouge.

Burnett is now under arrest on a charge of murder in connection with the kidnapping and slaying of Watt Daniel and Thomas Richards.

It was the first mention of Burnett's name by witnesses at the state's investigation of masked and hooded band depredations.

Mrs. Richards, widow of the slain man who provided Neelis on the witness stand, told of Richards being taken into the woods by a band of hooded men. Their four-year old child was with her father at the time. The men were described as "Klans." He told her they would kill him. (Continued On Page 2.)

PENNSYLVANIA LEADS IN CELEBRATING MEMORY OF STEPHEN C. FOSTER DAY; WAS COMPOSER OF 'OLD FOLKS AT HOME'

Composer of "Old Folks at Home" Died in Poverty Fifty-Nine Years Ago

Pennsylvania is leading in a movement to pay tribute to Stephen C. Foster on January 13. Fifty-nine years ago that day the composer of America's folk songs died in the charity ward of a New York hospital. In the papers of Morrison Foster the death of his brother is marked by a brief document. It is a receipt given to him in 1864 by the warden of Bellevue Hospital in New York City. It runs:

Ward 11, Stephen Foster, Died January 13th; Coat, pants, vest hat, shoes, overcoat, January 10, 1864. Received of Mr. Foster ten shillings charge for Stephen C. Foster while in hospital, Jan. 16, 1864. William E. White, Warden, Bellevue Hospital.

Foster's melodies of heart-touching simplicity are not only a substantial part of American musical heritage but are known and loved the world over. Following a plan suggested by Community Service, musical groups in Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Philadelphia, as well as in smaller Pennsylvania communities are this year giving impetus to a memorial which promises to be nation-wide next year, on the sixtieth anniversary of Foster's death. It is a coincidence that this man who gave voice to American ideals through his folk songs was born on the 4th of July.

Contrary to the popular belief, the composer of "Old Folks at Home" and "Old Black Joe" was not a native of Pennsylvania.

Reckless Hunter, Well Known Salesman, Given Year In The Centre Jail

Bellevue, Jan. 11.—Walter B. Gray, a traveling salesman, residing at 1414 Ninth street, Altoona, the first man to be convicted in this section of the state under the game laws of Pennsylvania which provides a pretty stiff penalty for shooting a person while hunting without first determining fully that what he is shooting at is not a human being, was yesterday afternoon sentenced to serve a term of one year in the county jail and pay a fine of $200 by Judge Henry C. Quigley at a special term of court.

On Nov. 2, 1921, Gray was hunting in Halfmoon township, this county and seeing what he thought was a turkey, fired. Willis C. Woodring, teacher at Port Matilda, received the charge of shot in the leg. He was seriously injured but recovered.

In February, 1922, County Game Protector Thomas Mosier, went before Justice Kline Woodring, of Bellevue, and made an information against Gray and he was accorded hearing and held for court trial.

During the May term of court, Gray was tried before a jury and convicted. He made application for a new trial and a stay of judgment. When the appeal was to have been heard, at the December, 1922, term, Gray's home in Altoona was quarantined and he could not appear. However, a new trial was refused and yesterday afternoon Mr. Gray walked into court here and surrendered.

In the meantime, a similar case was tried in Williamsport before Judge Whitehead. Upon conviction, the defendant was given the maximum sentence of $200 and two years in jail.

In sentencing Gray, Judge Quigley was inclined to leniency, but the law does not give much leeway in the matter of fines but puts the minimum prison term at one year. There are extenuating circumstances in Gray's case and Judge Quigley intimated that if these could be properly adjusted, he would consider a parole. Gray is married and has a family of six children.

DIES LEAVING INVALID HUSBAND

Mrs. Lizzie Field Swenson died at her home near the Clearfield bridge about 8:30 o'clock this morning after an illness of but two days, aged about 38 years. The deceased was a respected, industrious colored woman and her death is particularly sad at this time because of the fact that her husband is an invalid, having suffered a paralytic stroke last last week, and is confined to his bed. The couple came here some time ago from North Carolina.

AND STILL THEY COME

There is something doing at O-lanta, capital of Pike township, all the time these days, according to our correspondent, who says: Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Smith arrived home with their twin girls. They are named Eva Jeannette and Eva Lyn Bernette.

On Monday last the Stork left an 8 pound baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bensinger, who has been named Robert Arthur.

INDIANA COUNTIANS PAY STIFF FINES FOR ILLEGAL DEER

State Game Protector E. Clair Kelly of DuBois, and Deputy W. J. Davis, of Clearfield, succeeded in rounding up and finally soaking a gang of Indiana county game law violators, who had been ruthlessly violating all game laws in the Patchinville region the past season.

The final chapter in the chase after these "game hogs" was completed yesterday when Squire W. H. Smith of Burnside township, fined Willis Bartlebaugh and his brother, Lloyd Bartlebaugh, of Arcadia, Indiana, county, a total of $232.40, while suspending sentence on Ray, Harvey and Jess Bartlebaugh, three other (Continued on Page Two.)

RASMUSSEN QUILTS TO ACCEPT BIGGER AND BETTER OFFICE

Harrisburg, Jan. 12.—Governor-elect Pinchot would have another cabinet place settled now had Frederick Rasmussen, Secretary of Agriculture, accepted a reappointment. Mr. Rasmussen declined the offer and will quit the state service to take the position of Secretary of the Pennsylvania-Maryland Joint Stock and Land Bank.

There are four other places, now vacant and three that will be vacant, to be filled.

NEW SECRETARY IS TO BE HEAD OF THE STATE BUDGET PLAN

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 12.—Governor-elect Gifford Pinchot today asked Commissioner of Fisheries, Nathan P. Buller to remain in his present post until "next summer."

Harrisburg, Jan. 11.—Dr. Clyde King, new Secretary of the Commonwealth, will broaden the scope of the position and expects to make it a more important factor in Pennsylvania's government than ever before.

Self-imposed duties of a State budget officer will be merged by him with those set mandatorily by the Constitution and Acts of Assembly.

Dr. King, whose home is in Swarthmore, Delaware county, is busy ending his work as chairman of the Citizens Committee on Pennsylvania Finances, which was created by Mr. Pinchot after the former State Forester won the Republican gubernatorial election.

DOCTORS FIND THAT GOITRE AFFLICTS 60 P. C. OF PUPILS

And Rotarians are Glad They Fostered Treatment to Be Given Before Little Ones Suffer

BAND IS BOOSTED

The Clearfield Rotary Club meeting at the Hotel Jordan last evening was entirely devoid of thrills. President Bigler presided and before the food was served spoke of attending as a representative of the Club the annual banquet of the American Legion Band. He complimented the band highly and then introduced Manager Russell Shaw and Leader H. Clark Thayer who told of the aims and purposes of the band, soliciting the support and encouragement of the Rotary Club in doing so. Both speakers stressed the importance of personal interest of our citizens in the band as the organization's need.

Dr. Wilson, head of the Educational Committee, and President Bigler for the "On To Frederick Committee," reported on their work. The president stated that this committee would have important communication for the Club members at next Thursday's meeting. At this time Morris Lorgacere, district passenger agent for the P. R. E. Co. and a committee of the Phillipsburg Rotary Club will be present to discuss transportation and will be desirous of knowing how many members, with their wives, will go to Frederick, Md., on Jan. 17.

The President also reported that inasmuch as the ladies are to accompany the Rotates to the district conference it had been decided to have a ladies night on Feb. 22; at which time the members would put on a playlet adapted from Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet," brought up to date, with Ralph Jordan as "Romeo" and Sam Warner as "Juliet." (University neighbors say Sam is up to the mark.) (Continued on Page 6.)

FINEGAN REQUESTED TO STAY ON THE JOB AT LEAST TILL JUNE

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Superintendent of Public Instruction Thomas E. Finegan, against which department much criticism during recent months has been centered, has been asked by Governor-elect Pinchot to remain in that capacity until his term expires June 1.

The head of the educational system of the state is appointed for a four year term and the Governor, in announcing his decision, said that the "inevitable pressure since election has made it impossible for me to give such attention to this matter as would enable me to reach a conclusion. That being the case I have asked Dr. Finegan, whose term expires June 1, to continue until that time, with the clear, but distinct understanding that this arrangement, both on his side and on mine, leaves each of us free to make such arrangements as may be advisable. "In other words, I have not yet the necessary opportunity to become sufficiently familiar with the problem of elementary and high school education in this state, and I am postponing any decision in the matter, without prejudice, until I have had that chance."

The local High basketball team will meet the Reynoldsville terrors on the High School gym floor this evening, the game starting at 8:15 o'clock. The Reynoldsville team is one of the dark horses of the League and the fans who attend tonight's session are in for an enjoyable evening.

Pennsylvania Leads

tive of the South. He was born in Pittsburgh in 1826 of a Scotch-Irish family which helped to make Pennsylvania history. Stephen was a creamer and unusually shy. He left Canonsburg College at the age of twenty to work in his brother's office in Cincinnati. Here his first songs were published and won quick popularity. They attracted the attention of one of the foremost New York music publishing houses, which published all of his later songs.

The rest of his life is a history of wanderings and disillusion. It was one of these tragedies that resulted both from environment and from character. He had remarkable musical ability but little musical training. It never occurred to him or to anyone else that he might study music seriously and take it up as a career. He drifted into song writing because he naturally expressed himself in melody.

The genesis of the Foster celebration in Pennsylvania is the following. Community Service, which had prepared a special "Stephen C. Foster Program" as a tribute to the composer's memory, suggested to Dr. Hollis Dana, State Director of Music in Pennsylvania, that January 12 be celebrated throughout the state as Foster Day. The Department of Public Instruction thereupon transmitted the suggestion to public schools, colleges and other institutions throughout Pennsylvania. The response was widespread. Numerous public schools are putting on the special Foster program. The Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh which is Foster's birthplace, is featuring an exhibit including Foster's piano and a famous portrait of the composer. The Civic Club of Allegheny County is sponsoring a Foster program. Temple University in Philadelphia is another of the celebrants. Rapid has been the spread of the idea in other states. For example, of the Community Service organizations in various cities are making the Foster memorial their special musical event for the month of January. Wilmington, Delaware, is one of the cities that is giving the Foster Program, which consists of the narrating by a speaker of interesting facts in Foster's life, the singing of some of his songs by the audience and choral groups, and the illustrating of certain of the songs through costume and tableaux.

brothers of the first named, who were accessories after the fact of one of the violations for which fines were imposed.

On November 30th last Willis Bartlebaugh shot and killed a buck deer near Patchinville, and on the first day of the deer season, the day following, his brothers, Ray, Harvey and Jess helped him carry it in and dispose of it.

On the last day of the deer season Floyd Bartlebaugh wounded a doe and it was for these violations the fines were imposed.

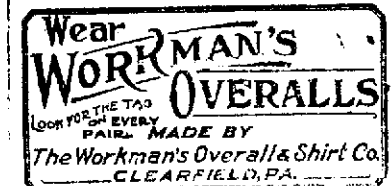

The game wardens say they had been after this crowd for some time and will recommend to the State Game Commission that their right to hunt in Pennsylvania be taken away for a good long time or until they are satisfied the Bartlebaughs can obey the law like other people.

back out on the porch to empty the ashes from the same when he heard two or three shots fired in quick succession. For a moment he believed the shots had been fired somewhere in the neighborhood, but the conviction then seized him that they had been fired in the house.

He ran upstairs to the second floor, but in passing through the hall downstairs noticed that a revolver was missing from a case of firearms which is kept there. He found no one on the second floor and continued on to the attic where Doris had a playroom. While ascending the stairs, his daughter, Mrs. Bunting, appeared on the staircase and started to descend. He cried to her, "Cressie, what is the matter?" and she replied, "Go in and see Doris." Mrs. Bunting then turned and reascended the stairs, falling at the top of the staircase and almost immediately expired.

Mr. Jackson entered the playroom and found the body of the little girl lying on the floor. She was dead, having apparently passed away without a struggle, nor was there any marks or blood visible upon her or her mother to casual inspection.

"Madame Sarah's last performance was her actual farewell," although she did not know it," said Guilty to his friends today. "She does not know it yet. Her last dress rehearsal was the greatest triumph of her life. Never have I seen such motion. In the play she held a letter in her hand and wept. It was so realistic that, after the rehearsal the letter was found to be sodden with her tears."

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

about the woods. He said he thought they were looking for a place to hang him. He told me they then said they were satisfied with what he had said. He then said they unmasked.

"They asked him if he had recognized any of them. He said he told them he recognized Captain Skipworth, but none of the others."

Neelis testified Richards, on the day following the first kidnapping, told him he had recognized five or six of the kidnappers.

"Who were they?" he was asked again.

"Captain Skipworth, Jim Tisdale, of Monroe; A. B. Campbell, of Jones, and Dr. McKoin," Neelis answered.

"I was on my way to Mer Rouge in a truck being driven by a negro," Neelis said, referring to the occurrence on August 17 or 18, "when I was held up on the road by seven hooded men."

"They had shotguns and pistols. I was ordered out of the truck. They told us to go on ahead and not to say anything about this. I went on, but near Mer Rouge I was held up by two unmasked men."

"They were Jeff Burnett and a Mr. Rogers. They told me to turn around and go back to where we were first held up."

"After reaching there we stayed about thirty minutes. We were joined by a masked man. He said, 'Do you know me?' I said, 'No.'"

"I was supposed to walk back to Bastrop, but I hopped a car going toward Bastrop and rode into town."

"When Burnett and Rogers held me up, I talked with them long enough to know what they were after. It was Richards."

"I asked Burnett who they were after. He said he couldn't tell me, but I said if he wanted Richards he need not resort to any of these measures."

"I beat the masked men into Bastrop. The first thing I did was to get Richards. I told him the Ku Klux was after him and for us to go over and sit in the sheriff's office, where he might have protection. He had his little girl with him and he said for us to wait until his wife came back."

"Now, back where I was held up I saw Burnett and Rogers put on their masks. About that time Fred Higgenbotham came up. He was unmasked. He consulted with Burnett and Rogers and they said I could go. "It was good and mad, and about that time the auto with the masked men came up to the garage. I went up to them and told them to leave Richards alone."

"About that time Rogers, who had a shot gun, pointed it at me and told me to step aside. They left with Richards, and later Mrs. Richards came up and I told her about it."

Addie May Hamilton testified she was forced to leave her home near Mer Rouge and was deported from the state by the Ku Klux. She named Dr. B. M. McKoin and "Pir" Kirkpatrick as two of the party of men who came to her mother's home one night, took her away and put her aboard a train for Little Rock, Ark., the home of her sister. The witness gave her age as seventeen.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The lot of a rural Justice of the Peace is not always a bed of roses and oftentimes the village Solomon is called upon to settle difficulties amicably among neighbors that would not only induce old Job to sit right down hard on his many boils, but would cause old fabled Solomon, the original, to tear his hair and cry "it is too much."

We are moved to make the above observation from our knowledge of a situation which exists up at Houtzdale. The Justice who is at his judicial wit's end for a solution of an almost interminable difficulty now confronting him is "Judge" John Scollins.

It is a difficulty in a manner peculiar to the day, or its times and its idioms, and has to do with the fact that Houtzdale is no longer the home of "white mule." Almost every other community in Clearfield county would be tickled to death that any "white mule" was gone from their midst never to return. But Houtzdale always did have more or less peculiar people with an ethical code all their own, and our tale hinges on that fact.

But to get down to our story and its whys and wherefores. The Hon. Jackie Neen, erstwhile champion of the rights of the people as a State Senatorial candidate, finding that before a man could get anywhere in Clearfield county politics he would first have to qualify as a successful coal baron or operator, lately embarked in the coal business. "A motive power at the operation was a white mule of uncertain temper and temperament. The mule wore his shoes out hauling dollars into Jack."

LUTHERAN CLASS NO. 3 HAS FINE MEETING

Class No. 3 of St. John's Lutheran Sunday school held their regular business and social meeting last night in the Sunday school room. They had as their guests the men's class, No. 2, taught by Mr. Wm. McBride, and their wives, the superintendent and wife, the pastor and wife and those whose husbands could not come were privileged to bring a friend. This very active class is taught by Prof. E. O. Tobias who was unable to be present. At the business session, a report of the work done by the class for the year was made and it was a very creditable report. Nearly three hundred dollars was received by the class during the year over and above their regular Sunday offering, which is always a liberal one. The retiring president, Mrs. Frank Smith, was presented with a beautiful necklace for her faithfulness. During her three years as president she did not miss one meeting of the class. Mrs. W. W. Shirey, the efficient secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Cathcart were a tie for second honor, having missed but one or two meetings. Surely these are to be commended for their faithfulness. It is just such loyalty that assures success in any undertaking.

Splendid readings were given by Misses Norris, Fleck and Paster. These young ladies have a bright future ahead of them if they have an opportunity to develop their talent. At the close of the program all were invited to the festal hall where refreshments were served by the young ladies of Mrs. Shull's class. Mr. Paul Dietzel acted as toastmaster and spoke on the work of the school. The pastor spoke on personal work. Dr. Frantz spoke of the changes made during the past five years and the harmony now existing. Mr. Carl Anderson emphasized the importance of knowing what you believe. Mr. McBride spoke on co-operation. At a late hour the end of a delightful affair came to a close, and all went off their way home with feeling it was good to have been there. Here's wishing Class No. 3 even greater success during 1923.

FIRST OF EUCRE PARTIES A SUCCESS

The first of the series of progressive card parties planned by the Second Ward Hose Company was held in their newly decorated and equipped rooms on Witmer street, on Thursday evening. The tables were fairly well filled and the playing accompanied by the refreshments made a most enjoyable evening. The Second Ward boys have their social room so tastefully arranged that it is one of the most comfortable rooms for private gatherings in the entire community. The next in the series of card parties to be held will be on Tuesday, January 30th.

Mr. Pinchot, by his action in resisting Mr. Finegan to remain at the helm of the good ship Education,
last June, gives evidence of a high appreciation of the importance of the department of the State Government and a greater interest in our public schools than shown by the office of the Finegan administration
during the last campaign.
Mr. Pinchot's statement leaves
no doubt, however, and it is to be hoped that the new governor will take time to inquire searchingly into
the Department of Education for the desirable result will be the retention of Dr. Finegan as a part and parcel
of the Pinchot regime.

Judging by her conduct in 1871 and by the terrible which she inflicted upon Belgium and France at the very outbreak of the World War
there is much reason to believe that Germany has been the victor she could have collected the whole of
the immense indemnity demanded
and would have been in possession of the allied lands months ago. She could have exhibited neither patience nor mercy. Why, then, should
the final determination of France to
the possession of the Ruhr region
create such uproar in various quarters. To the thinking of many her government has exhibited marvelous
patience during the passing years.

Do you know that there's a good deal of substance in nonsense? He who induces his fellow beings to do a good work. It has been said
that a genuinely hearty
laugh is often worth more than a dose of medicine and we believe it.
The best physicians understand the philosophy of laughter and are not above employing it as an auxiliary to
the pills and potions they dispense.
We hear one of that sort in a sick
room the other day preaching the doctrine of cheerfulness to really good effect. So long as one has the ability to laugh one's case is far from hopeless. Nonsense is more often than not the equivalent of good sense.

It is not to be wondered at that so
able a man as Fred Rasmussen,
whom Governor Sprout brought east
to take charge of the Department of Agriculture, is able to step out of the Sprout cabinet into a desirable,
and probably better paying position.
We are sorry to see Secretary Rasmussen leave the services of the Commonwealth but glad to know that he is to keep his residence at Harrisburg and still be in touch with agricultural affairs through his connections with the land bank.

While there are plenty of good
men who could be named to the position it would have been much better
if Mr. Rasmussen could have continued his work with the state.
And while Mr. Pinchot is looking around for a good man for Mr. Rasmussen's place it occurs to us that Dean Watts of State College is the peg that would fit the hole.

More than one of us have been forced to shudder when reading the

details of the Mer Rouge outrages
committed in the name of "one hundred per cent Americanism."
It may seem unbelievable to some
that such a thing could be in this civilized country.

But, we did not think Herrin was possible either.

What if you knew that right here
in Clearfield, two little boys, aged
ten and thirteen years of age, had been abandoned by their father and
days.

Tomorrow's Progress will tell you
about this.

Jackie Coogan, the young freckled faced lad of the silver screen, is to get a half million dollars for outlining his signature on the dotted line. His father is his manager and no doubt
dad and mother will get a new flivver
in the Spring.

You can hardly blame the trio for getting the money when the getting is good. Jackie is a born actor and millions love to see him perform his antics.

But a half million dollars for a like Jackie is a dangerous toy. We wonder just what Jackie will be doing when the country needs him.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Pennsylvania farm wives made 34,442-477 lbs of butter last year, which was valued at $16,496,400, according
to statistics of the state department of agriculture. In 1921 butter made on the farms totalled $6,011,509
pounds and was valued at $15,831-458.

York county was the champion
manufacturer of home-made butter.
Last year, with Lancaster second and Washington third. Butter made on the farms of the state last year sold
for an average of 48 cents a pound.

In Clearfield county 599,541
pounds of butter were made during the year at an average price of 52c
and for a total value of $311,768.06;
Jefferson county, 805,352 pounds at an average price of 45 cents and a total value of $362,408.85; Indiana
county, 1,082,011 pounds at an average price of 46 cents and a total value of 497,725.06.

With but three exceptions, the average price of butter in the county
during the year was as high as any county in the state.

der or to sanction laying the keels. The Lloyd-George government proceeded with the scrapping of all the ships specified in the Washington agreement. By so doing, it is pointed out, the existing reserve of the British navy against a possible repudiation of the naval agreement by other signatory powers has been destroyed.

This "act of good faith" has pushed England perilously near the danger point, the Morning Post declares. Should a repudiation of the Washington agreement occur at this time, the resultant strength of the three great naval powers would be, United States 41 capital ships; Japan 23 capital ships; England 23 capital ships.

The United States has not, according to the Post, taken steps to scrap designated vessels pending the final endorsement of the naval agreement by the government concerned.

Lord Lee, of Fareham is quoted as saying that the only reason the Admiralty agreed to the scrapping of nineteen capital ships by the late government was that the other powers should fulfill their obligations and that two new ships allowed under the agreement should be made immediately available.

Either of these promises to the Admiralty's conclusion to sanction the scrapping program may prove unsound. But, even though the treaty is poorly carried out, England will be far behind unless some means of carrying out the construction of the two new ships is found.

After Ratification

After ratification all around, the United States would possess 20 capital ships built and building. Five of these would be post-Jutland. Japan would have 10 capital ships, two of them post-Jutland. England would have an imposing total of 22 capital ships. But, the Post points out, only one of these, the Hood, would embody the improvement derived from the experience of the war. The foregoing status position to the United States in ultra-modern ships.

If the treaty is ratified all around and if the money for the construction of the two new ships is forthcoming, England and the United States will be on a parity with 25 capital ships each. Under the agreement England must scrap four capital vessels upon commissioning the pair of new ones. Japan's quota will be ten ships. If there is a hitch anywhere the balance is destroyed and England for the first time will find herself second in naval power. Meantime alarming rumors come from France that the naval government may not be okayed.

Bill Sheeder, who visited Pottsville Rotary Club the past week, told of his visit and presented many Pottsville ideas for the education of the club members.

George Zerfoss reported on the activities of the Boys' Work Committee and told of the survey in the school which found more than 250 pupils under weight. The Club is back of the movement to supply milk for these underweights and the President announced that $400 had already been provided for this work and the Rotary Club would provide a similar sum.

In connection with this effort, President Bigler called attention to the goitre-prevention movement of the School Board and referred to the lecture on the subject given before the club last year by Dr. Hayes Woodridge, in which the doctor referred to the fact that we are located in a goitre belt here in Clearfield county. President Bigler said the truth of that statement was found in the experience of the School Board, which queried the parents of the school children before the start of the present school term and received permission to use the goitre preventive medicine on 662 pupils. Of this number, upon examination, no less than 200 were found to already have implicit goitres.

Matt Savage, Reg. of Ocean City, N. J., who was present as the guest of President Bigler, was then introduced and favored the Rotarians with a pleasing little ten minute talk in which he contrasted old-time conditions in Clearfield with the present and spoke feelingly of the great change in the old town during the year and one-half he had been away. Mr. Savage complimented the Rotary Club on the good work they had already done and wished them enlarged opportunity and accomplishment for the future.

What the Business Man May Expect In 1923

There is scarcely an individual doing business in the United States, whether upon a large or small scale, who will not receive information that will be of unusual value to him if he reads the leading news-feature in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week. It comprises surveys and predictions of business for the coming twelve months made by the foremost financiers and economists in the country—the heads of great banking institutions; such men as John Moody, B. C. Forbes, and Roger W. Babson, and the financial editors of the most important American newspapers. The article points out the clouds on the business sky which no cautious business man can afford to ignore; shows the condition of the farmer; the trend of wages; what makes for increased prosperity. The article is illustrated by charts and graphs.

Other striking news-features in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, January 13th, are:

Lifting the Veil From Our Foreign Policy
The "Desert Strikers" Convicted
Putting World Peace Up to America

Go to the Theater and Laugh at "Fun From the Press"

When the dull cares of business are closed behind office doors, you need some laughter. When the dishes are done and the grind of household duties is over, you ought to laugh. It will make to-morrow brighter, happier. So pack up your troubles and take a little journey to The Land of Make Believe. In the mellow glow of subdued lights let the craftsmen of the cinema world guide your sagging spirits back to normalcy. Rest—amid the enchantment of princes and potentates and palaces as they pass in review for you. Then let the cleverest jesters of newspaperdom tickle your funny bone. They will make merriment of the day's dreariest news. They will relate the funniest anecdotes, the most humorous yarns, and the wittiest epigrams. And all presented in the one rollicking reel, "Fun From the Press." Watch for it in your favorite motion picture theater—a new one every week. "Fun From the Press." Produced by The Literary Digest. KELLOGG'S BRAN

gives permanent relief

because it is ALL BRAN!

With the most dangerous diseases close on the trail of sufferers from constipation, there's no time to waste on foods with a low bran content! The one answer to constipation is BRAN that is ALL BRAN! That's why you should eat Kellogg's—and eat it regularly; at least two tablespoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases! KELLOGG'S BRAN IS SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED TO RELIEVE SUFFERING HUMANITY AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Don't delay a minute! Get started on Kellogg's Bran to-day and your health will steadily improve and bowel conditions return to normal, no matter how long you have suffered with constipation, mild or chronic.

Remember that Kellogg's Bran is not an artificial laxative, but nature's own bulk food that acts as sweeper, cleanser and purifier. Its work for health is wonderful! Besides, bran contains the most valuable mineral salts and other life-sustaining elements—it is a blood maker and bone and tissue builder!

Kellogg's Bran, being cooked and kumbed, is delicious eaten as a cereal, or sprinkled on hot or cold cereals. Another happy way to serve Kellogg's Bran is to cook it with your favorite hot cereal. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person, cooking the cereal as usual.

You can make the most delightful muffins, raisin bread, pancakes, macarons, etc., with Kellogg's Bran—and it's fine in gravies, soups and purees.

The big thing is to get started on Kellogg's Bran quickly—for the sake of the health of your entire family—AND SERVE IT REGULARLY! First-class hotels and clubs serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant!

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

Report from Clearfield Hospital condition of Mrs. George who has been in that institution two weeks or longer, for treatment is very encouraging. Her South Side friends.

Marcell Cole, late of Santa Clara, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Martha Cole, over on 6th Side.

Annual meeting of the stockholders of the Curwensville National Bank held yesterday afternoon business hours.

Blake and wife, who have been burning in New York for weeks past, are expected to leave tomorrow or next day.

Young, who is now in his 80s, is in fast failing health. One of his daughters, Mrs. Mrs. South Filbert street, is blind and his mind is wandering backward to the days that occurred in his youth and manhood days.

Management of the B. R. & Co. has started a movement to improve lines on the B. R. from Bridgeport to the brick yard. Two new steel bridges are to be erected, one at a cost of $8,000 and another at $4,000. In length siding will be gradually laid to parallel the highway. These improvements were made necessary in order to improve the materials which will be shipped from that neighborhood. The B. & W. branch to the main line at Bridgeport. An eight steel bridge has been built, or will be just as soon as material arrives to be placed at Anderson Creek at Bridgeport.

Due to a car embargo on the roads at present, the Crescent Motor company is somewhat cramped in truck shipping. If cars are placed and loaded in the space of 10 hours, the cars are taken out. This short limit hampers time sufficient to load as cars as is desired.

Mr. Balone, one of the hustling men of this burg, has invested in a good sized motor and is now prepared to do all of draying and hauling.

A. D. Aldin arrived in Curwensville from her home in Pottsville, Pa., Wednesday night, summing up on account of the death of her father, Squire J. C. Bloom.

Teachers of the borough are not to be outdone by the neighborhood night by Mrs. Ruth for a sled ride to her home in Hampden. The pedagogues are as a matter of course, and some of the jolliest evenings of the season.

Months of the regular school closed Wednesday. The mid-winter examination will now be held. More than one lad and daughter will be on the anxious bench. The result is given out as to whether he or she passed through the gate to promotion.

Superintendent W. P. Trosper made an official visit to Curwensville schools on Tuesday. He was visited and at the time made an interesting High School, his subject being "Habit."

At a recent meeting the Teachers' Association elected officers for the year. Prof. Paul Zeller was chosen as president; Prof. Geo. E. Croyle, vice president; Miss Laura Walters, Secretary and Miss Ollie Moore, treasurer. This is strictly an organization for Curwensville teachers who meet for mutual consultation in regard to their educational work.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE OF WINBURNE DISTRICT

The Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Committee of Winburne, Lanse and Forest, extend hearty appreciation and thanks to the merchants, the schools and all persons who assisted in making the recent sale a success. The total proceeds this year, amount to $63.65.

To the scholars of the grade schools of Winburne, Lanse and Knoxrun and Viaduct is due great credit for the fine spirit they showed in canvassing and in making such splendid sales. Twenty per cent of this money will be handed over to the state fund, and eighty per cent of it will remain here to be used for health welfare purposes.

Mrs. R. H. SOMMERVILLE,
Mrs. BENJAMIN THOMAS
Mrs. W. P. THORP
Mrs. RICHARD GEORGE,
Mrs. LEWIS CHASE,

The Evangelistic meetings being held each evening this week in the Methodist church are interesting and inspiring. Considering the stormy weather, the attendance has been good. The meetings will be continued next week in the Presbyterian church, when Dr. John Scott of Phillipsburg will preach.

Winburne was the scene of a big conflagration Thursday morning about 2 a. m. when a large frame building owned by Chas. Johnson and used by William Adams as a pool room was almost completely burned down. Owing to the close proximity to dwelling houses, much more damage might have been done. The home of Harry Bowersox was badly charred and its windows cracked but luckily no wind was blowing and the fire company prevented the flames spreading farther. The loss on the building will be $300, contents $1500 and the damage to the Bowersox property will amount to about $300.

Tuesday afternoon the fire company was called to the John Schultz home, but a burning flue proved to be the extent of the fire there.

Mrs. Lewis Fleck, who underwent an operation in the Cottage State Hospital, is getting along satisfactorily.

Mrs. Frank Butler has returned from Lewisburg where she spent two weeks at the home of her brother, Rev. William Taylor.

Her many friends are pleased to know that Mrs. Thomas Simcox has made a good recovery from her illness and operation and is steadily regaining her strength.

Rev. L. N. Leith, of Watsonstown, was a welcome visitor here for a couple of days last week. His errand was a sad one, having come to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Jackson Hoover of Kylertown. While here he was the guest of James Hunter and greeted many of his old friends.

The Winburne Free Library has now moved into its new quarters, a pleasant and attractive room on Main street, near the drug store. It is expected that it will be a very useful asset to the community. It will be open to the public Tuesday 7 and 8 p. m. and Saturday 2 to 3 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m. until further notice.

GIRL SCOUT NOTICE

The patrol leaders representing the Scout house committee who met last Saturday morning to receive cash troop's appointment, are asked to meet again tomorrow and bring the goods. The house will be open at 8:30 and the patrol leaders are asked to appear with troop helpers and the implements of warfare, mop, soap, scrub cloths and the like and finish the job. The matter has hung fire too long and it would be a great pleasure all around to have everything possible finished off. Every one tell every one else.

The captains will meet with Mrs. Lawhead at the Scout building Monday evening as was previously decided. All will have alphabets memorized and signal flags as per directions, ready for instruction at once.

KNOCKED OUT BY FALL

President James Mitchell of the Clearfield National Bank, while coming down from his Walnut street home to the bank after dinner yesterday, slipped and fell on the ice in front of Dr. Woodside's residence on Second street. Mr. Mitchell struck the back of his head in his fall, cutting a gash in it and knocking him out for a time. He was taken to Dr. Woodside's office and his injuries attended to, after which he was able to get to his home, where he is still confined but is improving finely and will be about again as usual in a day or so.

COUNTY AGENTS MEET AT STATE COLLEGE

State College, Pa., Jan. 12—The annual conference for agricultural extension workers of the Pennsylvania State College started here this morning with the arrival of seventy-five county agents and assistant county agents. About forty extension specialists who work out from the college are also here for the meetings which will continue until next Friday evening.

The county agents, who come under the supervision of the college, will bring up the problems that confront them in their daily work of visiting and advising farmers in sixty-three of the 67 Pennsylvania counties. This is the time for making up programs for extension work in the various counties and the farm agents will engage the specialists whom they wish to conduct feature demonstrations this year in their respective counties.

A feature of the conference will be a series of six lectures on agricultural economics by Dr. E. G. Nourse, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. State Secretary of Agriculture Fred Rasmussen, President John M. Thomas, Dean R. L. Watts, representatives of the State Bankers' Association and the State Chamber of Commerce, will also speak to the extension staff. There will be a big get-together with the faculty of the agricultural school on next Tuesday night. A number of urgent extension problems will be brought up at the conference for solution.

At the close of the conference the extension staff and many of the agricultural faculty will go to Harrisburg for the annual State Fair Products Show.

A Nation's Tribute to Buick

There is an inspiring tribute to an industry in the universal recognition annually accorded the National Automobile Shows.

Thousands come to these exhibitions from every section of the continent and from foreign lands as well, and their advent is widely heralded the world over.

In the twenty-third National Automobile Show, just opening in New York, and later in Chicago, the nation is provided with a display of its chief means of personal transportation. This display is so complete and so magnificently set forth that all who come may easily carry away a perfect picture of the latest accomplishments in motor car building.

Year after year the national shows receive the homage of the entire country. Year after year they mark by their own increased magnitude and splendor, the increased growth of the automobile industry.

In occupying first place at both national shows for the fifth consecutive year, Buick continues the position in the industry awarded it by universal public opinion. D-16-24-25

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists call it "Joint Ease" because it's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only.

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and meat and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, painful joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and when it is caused by rheumatism or anything else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, tick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds' rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

First class druggists everywhere dispense it daily for about 60 cents a tube.

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. There is no longer the slightest need of this, however, as the new prescription, "Anuric," is bound to give immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, and by the impoverished blood of its possessor by way of the kidneys. It can be obtained at almost any drug store, simply asking for "Anuric" for kidney or backache. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant arising from bed at night.

Send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel Buffalo, N. Y., for a ten-cent trial pkg. or ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Anuric (kidney and backache remedy).

This is what one Pennsylvania man says:

Chester, Pa.,—"I was taken with rheumatism. I could not walk for ten days, and had to use a crutch and a stick for more than two months. After trying different remedies and getting no relief I bought two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets and before I had taken half a bottle I could walk without a stick. I continued to take them until I had taken nearly two bottles (dieting myself as directed) and I was then well."—W. M. Bell, 1115 Upland St.

January CLEARANCE Sale

Closes Saturday
January 13th

A GOOD TIME TO BUY

The January Sales inaugurate a value event in every department of the store, values so decisive that they are an incentive to buy those things which you really need, and also the one or two extra costumes that you are so anxious to have because of the added attractiveness that they will lend to your appearance. Prices have been brought down to the very lowest level and special purchases have brought selections up to a point of unusual attractiveness.

WOULD YOU PUT A LAME HORSE IN THE STABLE AND FORGET IT?

Not likely. Well, a truck costs more than a horse. If you have one "on the shelf" call us up and let us put it in our hospital.

Dried Beef Sliced

On Our New American Slicing Machine.

—It Is—

NUTRITIOUS

But it is not enough that food be palatable; man is realizing today as never before the necessity for properly balanced rations. Protein is an indispensable element in the food of mankind, and Dried Beef meets all the requirements of an ideal protein food. Professor Atwater gives the protein contents of Dried Beef as thirty-two per cent and the total food material as sixty-seven per cent. A Bulletin issued by the United States Department of Agriculture gives the protein content of Roast Beef as twenty-two per cent, Beef Steak twenty-one per cent, Roast Lamb sixteen and one-half per cent, Roast Chicken twenty-one and one-half per cent, Pork Chops sixteen and one-half per cent. These figures show the relatively high food value of Dried Beef.

Just the thing for a hurried meal.
